Code of Conduct Agreement

At SAST we are focused on preparing men and women to be useful in the building of the Kingdom of God. As such, we are concerned not only with preparing students academically, but also morally and doctrinally. As part of this preparation process, we require behavioral standards that are consistent with Biblical principles and that promote the development of Godly character. We require that each student fill out a code of conduct form so that every student is aware of the standards expected by SAST. After reading the full code of conduct form, please sign below in recognition of your understanding and acceptance of the code of conduct and have your pastor sign as a spiritual authority.

All Students:

I will be honest with all my class work. (no cheating, lying, stealing, or plagiarizing)

I will not partake of alcohol, tobacco, or drugs or other illegal substances. (drugs)

I will not partake in the performance or observance of any ritual activities or homosexual activities or any activity which is contrary to the doctrine of the International Assemblies of God in South Africa (IAG) as contemplated in the Constitutions of the IAG and SAST and its policies.

I will make every effort to be a responsible member of SAST community in my speech and attitude.

I will deal with conflict in a healthy and Biblical manner. (no physical aggression of any kind will be tolerated)

I will follow all the policies outlined regarding the library.

I will not bring any weapons to campus/class. (Knives, firearms, anything that is commonly recognized as a weapon)

I will obey all the rules pointed out in the student handbook.

I will respect the Administration of the school and follow their leadership and direction.

I will conduct myself in accordance with the highest standards of Christian life both on and off campus.

I will be above reproach and accusation when dealing with the opposite sex.

I will respond to conflict, misunderstanding, and cultural differences in accordance with Matt 18:15-20.

By signing below, I declare, understand, and accept the rules and precepts of SAST as contained in this code of conduct and that I agree to follow them.

SAST Program Components

SAST, in partnership with the Holy Spirit, exists to empower men and women to become Pentecostal leaders by equipping them with Biblically based instruction and practical ministry experience which will enable them to passionately participate in the Great Commission.

The primary goal of SAST is to prepare men and women to fulfill their God given call to ministry. In order to accomplish this, SAST has developed a program which contains two components: Academic training and Practical Ministry training worth a total of 311 credits. Each component is broken into three levels that run concurrently with each other. Please note that the current programs offered at SAST (Licentiate in Bible, Theology, and Ministry, Advanced Licentiate and Lay Ministers Certificate) is unaccredited with the DHE or QCTO in South Africa.

Academic Training

The Academic portion consists of 30 subjects/modules divided into 3 levels of 10 subjects/modules each. Each subject/module is awarded 9 credits for a total of 270 credits for this portion of the program. Below is a chart of the academic subjects / modules for each level of the program.

Practical Ministry Training

The Practical Ministry portion consists of three levels of assignments worth a total of 41 credits for this portion of the program. The Practical Ministry portion requires completion of various assignments which address five key areas of ministry competency.

1. Leadership
2. Pastoral Functions
3. Spiritual Community
4. Outreach
5. Management

Five Areas of Ministry Competency	Specific Components of Each Area
Leadership	Ministry Leadership Personal Development
Pastoral Functions	Preaching, Teaching Counselling, Visitation
Spiritual Community	Church Services, Special Services Discipleship Departments Ministry Teams, Cell Groups Church Discipline
Outreach	Evangelism, Church Planting Cross Cultural Ministry
Management	Finances, Church Board Planning / Calendar Building Program, Fundraising Annual Church Meeting

Level One (6 credits)

Interview pastors in their approach to various components of the Five competency areas

Level Two (14 credits)

Experience participating in each of the Five areas of ministry competency

Level Three (21 credits)

Experience in leading in each of the Five areas of ministry competency

Practical Ministry Training (PMT) is designed to give students exposure to as many components within these areas as possible. The PMT assignments are intended to provide a comprehensive picture of the areas needed to have a healthy church. PMT assignments are designed to be completed individually or in groups. Additionally, assignments may be combined to fulfill more than one requirement at a time. Students will be required to submit level appropriate forms to the supervising pastor for evaluation and grading. These forms will then be sent to SAST for review by the Dean of Student
